Love Makes You Free

If you were a bird I would sing you a song
If I was a cat I would climb all along the houses and mountains to see you again
Where are you my friend

And I would sing with the birds and
hug all the trees
Just to see
how love made you free

Love makes you free

But if you were the sky so vast and so blue
I'd jump on your clouds with my sweet pink shoes
If you were a river so clean fast and pure
Then I'd be a fish swimming for sure

And I would sing with the birds and
hug all the trees
Just to see
how love made you free

Love makes you free

But if you were the sun so hot and so bright I would circle around you to stay in your light

And I would sing with the birds and
hug all the trees
Just to see
how love made you free

Love makes you free

One Little Heart

One little heart
with one single beat
A heart all alone
Drumming for this world

It's beating for your ears
It's been beating for years
It's been beating without fear
It's bloody tears

One little heart
with one single beat
A heart all alone
Feeling incomplete

It's beating for your ears
It's been beating for years
It's been beating without fear
It's bloody tears

No it won't give up on you

One little heart
with one single beat

It's beating for your ears
It's bloody tears

Shooting Stars & Fairy Tales

Once I saw a falling star and it fell into my heart
It lightend up my darkest parts and it warmed it with it's spark

Shooting stars and fairy tales
They are the wind in my sails

I'm feeling fireworks in here
Light up the atmosphere
and I can see so far
I'm feeling fireworks in here
You are the wish my dear
I made upon this star

You can call me crazy
Call me any way you do
This star has fallen for you

Twice before I heard you say how you love the milky way Night and day I hope and pray that this love is here to stay

Shooting stars and fairy tales

I'm feeling fireworks in here
and I can see so far
I'm feeling fireworks in here
You are the wish my dear
I made upon this star

You can call me crazy
Call me any way you do
This star has fallen for

You and I are a universe
You and I are a universe
You and I are a universe
You and I are a universe

I'm feeling fireworks in here
and I can see so far
I'm feeling fireworks in here
You are the wish my dear
I made upon this star

You can call me crazy
Call me any way you do

This star has fallen for you

After All

It‘s got to be
It‘s got to be this moment
It‘s got to be
It‘s got to be now
It‘s got to be you

It‘s got to be
It‘s got to be forever
It‘s got to be
It‘s got to be tonight
It‘s got to be you

It‘s your hands that make me feel warm in the cold
Just one touch and I‘m out of control

After all that we‘ve been through
After all the things you do
After all those nights I‘d still come for you

Until the sun runs out
Until this town burns down
You may run away but I‘d still find you

There‘s got to be
There‘s got to be a reason
There‘s got to be
There‘s got to be a way
For me and for you

It‘s your smile that keeps me alive all day long
And your voice is my favorite song

After all that we‘ve been through

Until the sun runs out
You may run away but I‘d still find you

You are meant to be
Meant to be forever
You are meant to be
Meant to be tonight
It was meant to be you

After all that we‘ve been through

Until the sun runs out
You may run away but I‘d still find you

I wish it was you

How Much Is The Fish

Transforming the tunes
We need your support
If you got your breath back
It‘s the first page of the second chapter

I want you back for the rhythym attack
Coming down on the floor like a maniac
Get down in full effect

I want you back for the rhythym attack
I want you back
So clean up the dish

By the way
How much is the fish

We‘re breaking the rules
Ignore the machine
You won‘t ever stop this
The chase is better than the catch

I want you back for the rhythym attack
Coming down on the floor like a maniac

I want you back for the rhythym attack
So clean up the dish

By the way
How much is the fish

Let Me Borrow Your Shoes

It's not about the color of your skin It's not about the places that you've been It's not about the jewellery that you wear
It's not about the way you curse and swear

It's all about the secrets in your heart
It's all about the story from the start
It's all about the dreams you dare to dream
I wanna hear it all from A to Z

Let me borrow your shoes to walk a mile or two
I wanna know how it feels to be you
To be you

It's not about the bad mistakes we make It's more about a little give and take
It's not about the way you say your prayers
It's more about the moments that we share

It's not about the headlines that we read It's more about the stories in between It's not about the filters that we use
It's all about the things that make you you

Let me borrow your shoes to walk a mile or two
I wanna know how it feels to be you
To be you

Walk with me for a little while
At least let's try
Before we say goodbye

Let me borrow your shoes to walk a mile or two
I wanna know how it feels to be you
To be you

It Will Never Rain Roses

I have a garden of my own
You may think it's overgrown
How many flowers would you guess
It's a little wilderness

But now my beloved is gone
to the beds of spices
To feed in the gardens
and to be where the light is

And it will never rain roses
They are stuck here in the ground
Stroking our noses
without making a sound

My big garden full of flowers is a garden full of hopes And in the midst of all these roses dreams can freely grow

But now my beloved is gone

And it will never rain roses
They are stuck here in the ground

All the cities would be red and white
and every mouth would smile so bright

But It will never rain roses
They are stuck here in the ground

And it will never rain roses
They are stuck here in the ground

There's no sound

Love You To The Bone

I can't promise there'll be sunshine everyday
And I know that there are stupid things I'll say Can't promise you palaces of gold
But I still love you more than you will ever know

I can't promise you the never growing old Can't promise we'll be always on a roll
Plenty times we're gonna disagree
And you'll be mad at me

But I surrender my heart to you
Never thought that's something I could do
My arms will always be your home
'Cause I love you to the bone
Yes I love you to the bone

I can't promise there'll be laughter every day Can't promise you life won't get in the way
Most times I will be to blame
But I'll love you just the same

I surrender my heart to you
Never thought that's something I could do
My arms will always be your home
'Cause I love you to the bone

Creep

When you were here before
I couldn‘t look you in the eye
You‘re just like an angel
Your skin makes me cry
You float like a feather in a beautiful world
I wish I was special
So very special

But I‘m a creep
I‘m a weirdo
What the hell am I doin‘ here
I don‘t belong here

I don‘t care if it hurts
I wanna have control
I want a perfect body
I want a perfect soul
And I want you to notice when I‘m not around
So very special
I wish I was special

But I‘m a creep
I‘m a weirdo
I don‘t belong here

She‘s running out the door
She‘s running out
Run

Whatever makes you happy
Whatever you want
So very special
I wish I was special

But I‘m a creep
I‘m a weirdo
I don‘t belong here

I don‘t belong here
